WHO IS HE?—A dispatch from New Brunswick, N. J., says: The republicans of this city are still talking of a remarkable tribute spontaneously paid to an orator who came to this city, an entire stranger, last week. He is Hugh Gordon Miller, of Virginia, who is on the staff of speakers of the national committee. Mr. Miller came here to speak at a rally of the Young Men's Republican Club. He is only 25 years old, and many of the spectators stared in surprise when they saw what a striking he was. The young man's eloquence, however, kept his audience on their feet, and once, after a particularly effective burst, they rushed forward and swarmed over the platform cheering. At the close of the meeting the members of the Young Men's Club carried the speaker from the hall on their shoulders. The crowd followed his carriage to the hotel and would not be satisfied until he had addressed them again.

Not content with this, the club lined up several hundred strong in front of the hotel at noon, when Mr. Miller took his departure, unbolted the horses from the barouche and dragged the vehicle to the depot. Mr. Miller made a third speech at the depot, and was hailed by the throng as the next Governor of Virginia and the future President of the United States.

Treatment skin eruptions, burns and sores are soothed at once and promptly healed by applying DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the best known cure for piles. Beware of worthless counterfeits.
